NOTES RELATED TO TARIFF PARAGRAPHS 9.1 and 9.2.

When opening a nostro letter of credit with deferred deposit, in case the confirmation of a foreign bank is conditioned by the deposit, the Bank will calculate and collect the RSD equivalent of the interest that would be earned by placing a foreign currency deposit in the same amount and for the same period under market conditions. Commissions under tariff item 9 will be calculated quarterly in advance for the first quarter and each full quarter in which the open nostro is valid. In the period after the last full quarter of the validity of the nostro letter of credit, the commission will be calculated in advance for as many months as in start within the validity period, for each month started by one third of the quarterly commission.

In case of increase in the value of the letter of credit, and in case of extension of the validity period, the fee from the appropriate tariff item will be charged.

In case of letters of credit with deferred payment, the commission will be charged until the expiration of the obligation to pay.

The Client obliges to submit, at the request of the Bank, an appropriate instrument to ensure the payment of fees for services in foreign operations. (standing order, blank promissory notes, guarantees and / or other forms of guarantee).

NOTES RELATED TO TARIFF PARAGRAPHS (1.1. - 1.3.)

According to the degree of risk, a special arrangement commission in the amount of 0.50% -5% (one-time payment) can be agreed. When issuing a nostro guarantee without cover, in case the confirmation of a foreign bank is conditioned by making a deposit, the Bank will calculate and charge the RSD equivalent of the interest it would earn by placing a foreign currency deposit in the same amount and for the same period under market conditions.

Commissions that are calculated quarterly in advance are calculated for the first quarter and each full quarter in which the guarantee issued is valid. In the period after the last full quarter of the guarantee, the commission will be calculated in advance for each starting month by one third of the envisaged quarterly commission. In the event of an increase in the amount of the guarantee as well as in the case of extension of the validity period or other changes in the conditions under the guarantee, the fee from the tariff items related to the issuance of the guarantee will be charged. Security provision means foreign currency and RSD deposits term for the term of validity of the guarantee or loan. Other means of security include the registration of a mortgage with the Bank, a pledge on an apartment, a manual pledge on goods, a warehouse, a blank promissory note, and contractual authorizations.
